

Event terms and conditions

By registering for an event with Spinal Injuries Association (SIA) ("we") you are agreeing to the following terms and conditions.

General

- If you are registering other people into an event you are accepting the terms and conditions on their behalf and are confirming that you have been given the authorisation to do so.
- We reserve the right to close registration when participant levels reach capacity.
- Participants under the age of 16 years must be accompanied by a parent or guardian, who will take full responsibility for them throughout the event.
- Personal information will be stored, used by the event organiser and their partners in connection with the organisation, staging and administration of the event.

Event changes, cancellations, and refunds

- Once registered, you will receive written confirmation of your place. Your entry and any fees associated are non-transferable and non-refundable.
- We reserve the right to change any details of the event, such as line-up, the event date, changes to the timings, or make any other amendment to the event that we deem necessary to stage the event. Any change to the event will be communicated to participants as soon as possible.
- Refunds can be requested in the event of any date change. No full or partial refund shall be made for any change in start time for an event provided the event takes place on the specified date of the event.
- We reserve the right to amend the event format or cancel the event due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control or for any safety related reason with no further liability whatsoever arising from such cancellation. In the event of SIA cancelling the participant will be offered a full refund unless the place is able to be transferred to a different day.
- If Government restrictions prevent us from holding the event, a full refund will be offered for ticket/team sales. We will endeavour to postpone not cancel the event, if we postpone the event, ticket monies can be transferred to the next event.

Liability

- You agree to take part at your own risk. We shall not accept liability for any injury to any person as a result of participation in this event.
- We shall not accept responsibility for loss of or damage to participants' property or property belonging to third parties.
- Any participant that acts negligently, maliciously, with wilful misconduct or otherwise without due care and attention for the event or other participants, to cause the participants removal from the event, will not be entitled to a refund.
- SIA reserves the right at any time to remove participants from the event.

Communications and marketing

- By registering you agree to receive emails, mail and texts regarding information about this event, which may include location, parking details, health and safety information, recommended clothing and footwear, training advice and fundraising guidance.
- Photographs and video footage taken during the event may be used to publicise this event and the work of SIA. If you do not wish to appear in any photographs or films please notify a member of the SIA event team.

On the Day

- If you arrive late or do not turn up to the event the cost of your ticket will be treated as a donation to SIA – refunds will not be issued.

SIA reserves the right to update their terms and conditions in relation to the event at any time or prior to the event day.
